

What is Tourism?

Tourism is the activities of people traveling to and staying in places outside of their usual environment.

outside of their usual environment.

What is Tourism?

Tourism is the activities of people traveling to and staying in places outside of their usual environment.

outside of their usual environment.

Do Architectural History and Tourism Relate?